About Workforce Development: FWCAC is actively seeking employment and training opportunities for members. FWCAC'S aim is to develop a workforce for effective operations in the Co-management of Parks, the management of Native Title held land and ecology, meeting mining employment targets, and other enterprise and economic development ventures linked to the FWCAC Group of Entities.

Opportunities may arise for members in these operational areas including free training options, skill development and recognition, contracted employment, on the job training and assessment, vacancies with partnering organisations, various heritage based activities and more.
