

Education Scholarship Policy and Application form

For support from the Far West Coast Aboriginal Corporation.

Please note: no cash can be paid.

EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP POLICY

- INTERPRETATION.

Before applying for assistance, you should be aware that there is limited funding available and not all applications for assistance will necessarily be funded. Assistance may be made available subject to budgetary requirements.

The aim of scholarship assistance is to provide support for registered members of the Far West Coast Aboriginal Corporation (FWCAC) that live in South Australia to pursue their educational aspirations. Education Scholarships are available to assist with members' children participation in high performing secondary (year 8 and above) education including boarding costs if living away from home, subject to funding, If the application submitted meets the Education Scholarship policy.

The applicant and student will be required to enter into a partnership agreement with FWCAC that will spell out the terms of the scholarship. Ongoing Scholarship arrangements will be dependent on the students previous year's attendance, attitude and results and may not automatically carry over to the next year of education.

Any approved payments will NOT be made to individuals or private bank accounts, rather, they will be paid direct to the nominated registered Education institutions or travel / accommodation agents on provision of a tax invoice or relevant quote.

The Education Scholarship assistance is only open to registered members and their children living in South Australia.

Applications will be subject to the policy and funding criteria at the time the application is lodged.

This application must be received by the FWCAC office by the 12th of December EACH YEAR to be considered for the following year of study. LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED, nor ASSESSED.
